MARC FOXX is pleased to present a new exhibition of work by Italian-born, Los Angeles-based artist Luisa Lambri.

Luisa Lambri was an Artist-in-Residence was in 2008 at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, and she has subsequently returned three times to photograph the museum during different periods of the year. The result is a series of intimate portraits of the museum as light, space and memory.

Luisa Lambri's most recent solo exhibitions include Portrait at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston, and Being There at the Armand Hammer Museum, Los Angeles. Other exhibitions include Front Room: Luisa Lambri at the Baltimore Museum of Art, Locations at the Menil Collection, Houston, Envisioning Buildings: Reflecting Architecture in Contemporary Art Photography at MAK, Vienna, Architectural Environments for Tomorrow. New Spatial Practices in Architecture and Art at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Tokyo, Inside Out. Photography after Form, Selections from the Ella Fontanals-Cisneros Collection, Miami, The Shapes of Space at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York, and People meet in Architecture, 12th International Architecture Exhibition, Venice, Italy. She has participated in both the 1999 and 2003 Venice Biennials.

She will have a solo exhibition in the main gallery of Marc Foxx this Fall.
