

ARCOMadrid 2020 - February 26, 2020 - March 01, 2020
STAND 7E08

The gallery's presentation at ARCOMadrid will be dedicated to the work of British performance artist, Rose ENGLISH.

Rose English is best known for her contributions to the development of performance art in Britain. Emerging from the conceptual art, dance and feminist scenes of the 1970s, English has developed an extensive interdisciplinary practice over the past 40 years, honing a unique artistic vocabulary that has consistently analysed and commented on aesthetics, politics and philosophy, including aspects of British pop culture, from show girls and show horses to magic acts and pantomime.

Artists will include:

Rose ENGLISH (mainly)

Olga de AMARAL

Gina PANE
