

Irène Laub Gallery is glad to present an focus on Belgian artist Roeland Tweelinckx. Tweelinckx is well-known for his three dimensional creations, in which he uses materials from our daily lives to create a dialogue with the artwork's environment and to manipulate our spatial perception. His production is characterized by a mix of objects and in situ works called «interventions», placed in public settings or exhibition spaces.