Frieze Viewing Room: New York Edition May 6 – 17, 2020

For Frieze Viewing Room: New York Edition, Luhring Augustine presents a selection of works by four artists, Christina Forrer, Tom Friedman, Sanya Kantarovsky, and Emo Verkerk, who through a variety of mediums share a focus on figuration. As this unprecedented moment finds us newly estranged from the company of others, this emphasis on the figure reaffirms the significance of presence in a time defined by distance. While we increasingly occupy online worlds, artworks centering the human body ground us in the reality of our physical, corporeal condition while celebrating our shared humanity. Including works created by Forrer, Friedman, Kantarovsky, and Verkerk, this collection of paintings, drawings, sculptures, prints, and tapestries is populated by the figures, both real and imagined, who inhabit their worlds.
