

STEVE TURNER

PRESS RELEASE

Our World

Hannah Epstein, Kate Klingbeil, David Leggett, Kevin McNamee-Tweed,
Samantha Rosenwald, Stipan Tadić, Brittany Tucker and Mark Yang
December 2, 2020–January 5, 2021

Steve Turner is pleased to present the first iteration of Our World, an online group exhibition which features new works by eight artists (Hannah Epstein, Kate Klingbeil, David Leggett, Kevin McNamee-Tweed, Samantha Rosenwald, Stipan Tadić, Brittany Tucker and Mark Yang) who come from various parts of the world and who have coalesced to become part of the gallery's world. While the artists work in a broad range of media, styles and concepts, all make deeply personal work that is a consequence of their biography, geography, identity and mentality. Their world is our world and we are delighted to present it to the art world at a time when we all would be converging in Miami for Art Basel Week. With no art fairs and no opening receptions, we want to demonstrate that life goes on, art goes on and community goes on.

Subsequent presentations of Our World will feature additional artists. Profiles with interviews of some Our World artists can now be viewed on the Focus section of our website. Others will be added over the course of 2021.