Gagosian is pleased to present Hong Kong Exchange, an exhibition of works by some of the gallery's most esteemed artists, most of whom have shown at the Hong Kong location, and some of whom will be exhibiting in the space for the first time.

New and recent works will be featured, including Ed Ruscha's painting on paper TOWN TONE (2020) and Andreas Gursky's large-scale photograph Hong Kong Shanghai Bank I (2020), a revisit of his 1994 depiction of the same skyscraper. These compositions will be shown alongside key works of historical significance, such as Cy Twombly's enigmatic oil painting Untitled (1957) and Nam June Paik's iconic sculpture Bakelite Robot (2002).

Additional works in various media by Georg Baselitz, John Currin, Roe Ethridge, Urs Fischer, Katharina Grosse, Andreas Gursky, Damien Hirst, Tetsuya Ishida, Alex Israel, Jeff Koons, Takashi Murakami, Nam June Paik, Richard Prince, Sterling Ruby, Ed Ruscha, Jenny Saville, Rudolf Stingel, Sarah Sze, Cy Twombly, Mary Weatherford, Jonas Wood, and Zeng Fanzhi will be on view.
