ON PAPER:

Natasja Kensmil/Ellen Gallagher/Marlene Dumas/Kara Walker

June 17 - July 31

This exhibition brings together drawings by four committed painters, each of whom has developed a visual language in which references to distant and/or near history, power, oppression and human issues come into tension with the present. Whether the visual elements are derived from pop culture, music, history, art history, mysticism or a mixture thereof, the artworks offer a new and rich perspective on entrenched thinking systems.
