To Live is to Dream

Jeremy Deller (b.1966, London; lives and works in London) studied Art History at the Courtauld Institute and at Sussex University. Deller won the Turner Prize in 2004 for his work 'Memory Bucket', and represented Britain in the 55th Venice Biennale in 2013. He has been producing projects over the past three decades which have influenced the conventional map of contemporary art.

With thanks to BUILDHOLLYWOOD for their support on a series of street posters produced to coincide with the exhibition.
