

GIOVANNI ANSELMO

Opening Saturday 19 November 2022, 3:00 pm – 8:00 pm

Galleria Lia Rumma, Via Stilicone 19, Milan

Opening times: Tuesday -Saturday, 11:00 am -1:30 pm / 2:30 pm -7:00 pm

The Lia Rumma Gallery in Milan presents an exhibition of works by Giovanni Anselmo spanning most of his artistic career, beginning from Senza titolo (Untitled) dating to 1968 and culminating in Mentre la terra si orienta (While the Earth finds its bearings, 2002-2022), made specially for the gallery spaces.

The three floors of the gallery's exhibition space contain ten works based on the physical concepts that Anselmo has frequently addressed in his artistic output, often giving them an actual presence, such as the force of gravity, the magnetic field, the Earth's rotation, the constant motion of the universe and the visible juxtaposed with the invisible.

Giovanni Anselmo was born in Borgofranco d'Ivrea (Turin) in 1934. He lives and works in Turin.

Since the late 1960s he has been one of the leading figures in the Arte Povera movement.

His work has been displayed in thousands of exhibitions held in Italy and abroad. His works are in public and private collections of the world's most prestigious museums.

In 1990 he was awarded the Golden Lion (Leone d'oro) for painting at the Venice Biennale International Art Exhibition.

In 2016 he was awarded the President of the Republic prize by the Accademia Nazionale di San Luca.
