

Andrew Sim at WINDOW

six werewolves without hair (two gold, from the future), two santas, two daisies, a sunflower and a monkey puzzle tree
April 27 - May 29, 2023

Anton Kern Gallery is delighted to announce the Scottish artist Andrew Sim's forthcoming solo presentation at WINDOW, featuring new paintings and works on paper. Here Sim presents new variations on their signature motifs, including werewolves, Santa Clauses, sunflowers, daisies, and monkey puzzle trees. In these works, the artist intertwines elements of their autobiography with fantasy, mythology, and the mysteries of nature to explore the internal and external queer experience. Through their subjects' poses, delicate rendering, and otherworldly glow, these archetypal forms become vessels through which to express vulnerability, transformation, and growth.
