Miami, FL, October 28th, 2023 | Pan American Art Projects is pleased to announce Text/Image, a collective exhibition curated by Ross Karlan, on view from November 16 to December 23, 2023. The gallery will host an opening reception on Thursday November 16 from 6 to 9 PM.

Text/Image is an exploration of the relationships between these two often interconnected concepts. This show engages in a broad discussion of semiotics and visual rhetoric. The exhibiting artists explore the idea of meaning-making as it pertains to signs, symbols, language, and visual tropes. While some artists employ written language directly in their works, others pull inspiration from written texts or even create their own linguistic systems and indices, expanding the semiotic possibilities and blurring the line between the linguistic and the visual.

Artists: León Ferrari, José Manuel Fors, Carlos Gallardo, Lorena Gutiérrez Camejo, Robert Indiana, Hander Lara, Cássio Markowski, Jodi Minnis, Jessy Nite, Iván Perera, Marlon Portales, Jorge Ríos, Carolina Sardi, among others.
