Group Exhibition

Galerie Forsblom, January 17–February 16, 2025

Galerie Forsblom will kick off the year 2025 with a group exhibition featuring works by the gallery's esteemed artists. This carefully curated showcase will highlight a dynamic interplay between past and present, bringing together a selection of older, iconic works and brand-new creations from the leading figures in our artistic roster. The exhibition aims to provide visitors with a comprehensive look at the evolving trajectories of these renowned artists, celebrating their diverse styles, mediums, and perspectives. It promises to be an inspiring start to the year, offering both a reflection on artistic legacies and a glimpse into the exciting future of contemporary art.

The exhibition is showcasing works by artists such as
