Tilton Gallery is pleased to present Intrigue, a group exhibition of diverse artists with works from the 1970s to the present. The exhibition will open Thursday, January 23rd from 6:00 to 8:00pm and extend till March 8th.

Art can be straightforward or art can have mystery. The works in this exhibition all hold something back, present an enigma, a sense of intrigue. Many figures turn or glance to the side, others stare straight ahead as if to challenge. None are portraits. Conceptual or surreal, some are reticent, some have an attitude and all intrigue.
