

Johnny Miller
Drawing Cabinet
18.01. - 07.03.2025

Johnny Miller bids us to enter an uncertain world that exists beyond the comforting illusion of intellectual meaning. Drawing on vivid childhood memories, historical and contemporary figurative imagery, he searches out hidden aspects of the human condition. Creating a poetic patchwork of disparate symbols, Johnny Miller invites us to draw on our lived experience to explore the puzzling islands of identity that we inhabit. A common theme is the culturally imposed and/or fragile nature of masculinity. The 'Drawing Cabinet' with more than 100 works by Miller invites the viewer to dive into the artist's complex yet beautiful practice.