PARIS, October 14, 2026—Gagosian is pleased to debut a new work by Rudolf Stingel in Paris. This monumental painting of the New York City skyline is the subject of a single-work display at the rue de Castiglione gallery from October 22, 2026, to January 9, 2027.

Like the paintings of Giorgio Morandi and Canaletto, Stingel's new work celebrates the power of the familiar and the banal. From the self-portraits, he shifts the camera to the cityscape. And the city looks back.
