

GREENE NAFTALI

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gedi Sibony

October 9 – November 8, 2014

Greene Naftali is pleased to announce its fourth solo exhibition with Gedi Sibony, his first in its new ground-floor space. Continuing to recruit objects of disuse, Sibony presents a new body of work comprised mostly of pieces cut out of decommissioned semi trailers. They are flat, hang on the wall, and have occurrences of paint used to block out logos or text. Collecting these materials over the last five years Sibony shows a group of them together in the main room. In the backroom is a small, playful ensemble of crude copies of a Fontana and two ancient figurines.

Gedi Sibony (b. 1973) lives and works in New York. Recent solo exhibitions include Douglas Hyde Gallery, Dublin (2014); Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts, St. Louis (2012); Culturgest, Lisbon (2011); and Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (2009). His work is included in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art, New York; the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York; Walker Art Center, Minneapolis; and the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art among others.
