

In our annex, we have installed a group show with works by gallery artists. Centered around Håvard Homstvedt's dreamlike surreal bronze bust from 2008, we are featuring new works by Morten Andenæs and a recently completed suspended steel sculpture by Tone Vigeland. A special selection of works by Admir Batlak are also being shown; a group of unique textile works derived from his latest fashion collection.